PAHA Summer "Shoot Out/Paint Out" Coming

PAHA's annual summer "Shoot Out/Paint Out", an outdoor event for photographers and artists, is set for Saturday, June 26, starting at 10 a.m., at the Abraham Van Campen/Jean Zipser Homestead.

The program takes place in the Pahaquarry region of Hardwick Township, located in northwestern New Jersey. This area abounds with rural beauty and scenic trails, offering photographers and landscape painters a variety of wonderful backdrops.

The day begins with the artists meeting for a breakfast reception and registration at the Abraham Van Campen/Jean Zipser Homestead. The fee for the day is $20. The photographers and artists will then disperse to any public location within the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area (DWGNRA) to photograph or paint. PAHA will supply maps and information to help orient the participants to the area.

A buffet lunch, provided by PAHA, will await the painters and photographers, between 12:30 to 2:00 p.m., when they return from their morning activities. After lunch, the artists will set out again to paint or photograph the varied woodland landscape and old-style farmsteads. The "Shoot Out/ Paint Out" ends at 5:00 p.m.

PAHA offers participating artists local venues to exhibit work produced during PAHA sponsored programs such as the "Shoot Out/Paint Out" and workshops. The rain date for the shoot out/paint out is Sunday, June 27.
